Aerial

We are delighted to introduce 'Aerial' – the first woven upholstery collection from Eleanor Pritchard. The reversible designs have a pared-back geometric patterning and a strong graphic quality. The palette includes deep inky blues, cross hatched greys, black and white marls and hot orange. Drawing inspiration from sound waves and radio transmission, the fabric names reference UK transmitter masts.

The fabrics are all designed and sampled by Eleanor Pritchard in the London studio, and are woven in Scotland on the Isle of Bute. The first collection comprises of nine patterns over three colourways.

The fabrics are suitable for both contract and domestic use, and the stock range is available to order by the metre. We also offer a bespoke design service for larger projects.
